DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt of the papers filed on December 29, 2003, is acknowledged. Applicant has canceled claims 33, 35, 41 and 54-57. Claims 40 and 43-49 were previously canceled. Claims 30-32, 34, 36-39, 42 and 50-53 are pending. All independent claims (30, 36, 51 and 54) previously considered were directed to apparatus including concentric anode segments. While pending independent claims 30 and 36 still recite concentric anode segments, independent claim 51 has been amended to recite non-concentric rather than concentric anode segments. Consequently, the pending claims are now directed to patently distinct species.

2. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: 1) an electrolytic cell including a plurality of concentric anodes with an electrolyte solution channel between the anode segments and an anode base, and insulating members positionable or positioned between adjacent anode segments; and 2) an electrolyte container with a plurality of non-concentric anodes wherein one anode segment is surrounded by another one of the anode segments and an electrical source coupled to each of the anode segments.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
